Homeowner Supplied Interior Photograph Consent and Acknowledgement Form

Subject Property Address: _____

Unit Number (if applicable): _____

The party requesting the appraisal of the property cited above requires, among other things, the taking of interior photographs of several areas of the property. The pictures are intended to provide the client and/or intended user of the appraisal report with information on the interior condition and layout of the areas. The information collected will be used to create the appraisal report for its intended purpose, and will not be used for any other purpose, disclosed to a third party or used by the appraiser for profit.

In accordance with the Personal Information Protection and Election Documents Act (PIPEDA), the Appraisal Institute of Canada's (AIC) Canadian Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice (CUSPAP), and the AIC's Professional Liability Insurance Program, your consent and acknowledgement are required. Photographs supplied should exclude any personal information that would make the occupant identifiable, regardless of physical form or characteristics.

I consent for the appraiser assigned to my property to use the photos I have supplied to them for their appraisal report.
